DIRECT ROUTE TO THE GOLD FIELDS OF MONTANA!
VIA EAGLE BRIDGE, situated near Eagle Rock Ferry, (known in Campbell's and other guide books, as Richard's Ferry.) The Ferry is a good running order. Emigrants and freighters will find it to their advantage to cross at the bridge, thereby avoiding the danger of crossing a rapid and turbulent stream by means of boats. In connection with the bridge and Ferry, we have a General Store, where every article required by travelers and stock can be obtained. We have also a Blacksmith Shop, where all kinds of work will be done at moderate prices.
Freighters, to insure a supply of grain at the Bridge or Ferry, should address a letter to the proprietors, via Great Salt Lake City, Utah, stating the probable time of arrival and the amount required.

Mormon Conventions and Gen- tle Contractors.

For three years past, the task of procuring supplies for the troops in Utah has been attended with difficulties such as few can comprehend not familiar, by experience, with the obstacles to be overcome and the circumstances of the situation. Located among a people who did not disguise their hostility to the presence of national forces in their midst, who viewed their coming with manifest distrust and were, beyond question, merely quiescent in disloyalty, the condition was a kind of limbo between a community composed of friends and one of undisguised enemies. Purchases could not be made freely as in the one case, nor forced contributions levied as in the other.

The Mormon leaders, as usual, made the most of this state of affairs. Scarcely were the troops located on the plateau near the city, at least as soon as Brigham could put the thing in working order, a plan was inaugurated to compel those in the Government service to pay exorbitant and purely arbitrary prices for all articles of necessary consumption. An edict went forth forbidding the sale of agricultural products except at a scale of prices fixed beforehand by the Church commandants. This was the first combination to extort from the Government, and at a time when the Nation could ill afford extravagance, which came under our observation in Utah, and very naturally begot a spirit of resistance to such outrage on the part of those in whose hands were placed the interests of the Government in this Territory.

Gentle influence at that time was a nonentity here and a policy was adopted intended to foster its growth by the bestowal of judicious patronage, as well as by other means looking to the development of the mines. But in no instance were the obligations of any contract permitted to be fulfilled when it was in the power of Mormon patriots to prevent it. The means used to compass this end it is not necessary to rehearse. They are familiar to all three year residents and, what with Tabernacle harangues, titling-office flats, and "conventions," were very generally successful to a degree. The rigid economy used in awarding contracts and of the dog-in-the-manger policy of the Church authorities, between them, generally left the profits of contractors, on the wrong side of the ledger, but, from recent developments, it would seem that the fraternity are by no means disposed to be content with a single discomfiture, as they return to the charge most valorously and, this time, evidently inspired with a determination to get even on all former misfortunes with a perfect vengeance.

It would seem that in attempting to encourage an element in Utah capable of coping with Mormon monopolies a creature has been developed if possible, even more insatiably rapacious than that which was sought to be crippled or destroyed. No combination set on foot by Brigham Young to defraud the Government which has come under our cognizance was ever characterized by a more flagrant violation of every principle of fair dealing, than distinguished the raid recently attempted on the Commissary Department, which has furnished food for comment, not the most flattering, during several days past. The whole affair was simply shameful. It was a direct effort to defraud the Government out of some forty thousand dollars, more or less, and was in every particular as reprehensible as anything of the kind the Mormons have ever done. The latter showed a wisdom, which we cannot help to admire, in holding themselves aloof from the disgraceful scramble.

We have said some hard things against the saintly leaders now—hard! and they were true—and whenever we find others, be they Jew or Gentile, emulating their baseness, we shall have the same weapons for them and shall not hesitate to use them. Somehow it seems to be considered by many perfectly legitimate to plunder the Government—we do not so consider it and will not remain silent when we see it attempted. A wholesome lesson should be given to these unscrupulous gentry who hold to such a mercenary creed, and they should be taught that neither Mormon conventionists nor other self-huckstering, would-be contractors of whatever name, can form illegal combinations to overreach the agents of the Government without incurring the penalties, or practice the species of legerdemain recently essayed, with impunity. Men of strict integrity will not attempt such tricks, and those who do, deserve to be looked upon with suspicion by all with whom they deal. Above all should those who have future contracts to award take counsel of this transaction and see that all engaged therein be watched with a keen eye hereafter. What consideration is one class or creed entitled to more than another if not found more deserving? Ah! however widely they may differ in their points of faith, the greed of unlawful gain is common to them all, and you have but to show them the carcass when these creatures of prey, wolf, buzzard and vulture, all flock and troop to the feast of carrion.

The True Policy.

The account of the late Indian fight in Paradise Valley, which appeared in the Humboldt (Nev.) Register, of August 5th, contains the following sentiment, and in our opinion if carried out, will prove the only successful policy, or we may be compelled to accept the alternative of a tame submission to their cruelty and barbarity.

"No prisoners were taken in this fight. It was conducted on the system proved by the history of all our border troubles, to be the only correct method of quieting Indians—killing them as fast as you can lay hands on them. The Indian nature as developed on the frontiers, is devoid of gratitude and of susceptibility to humanizing influences. Be kind to them, and they think you fear them; and they grow insolent in proportion as you treat them well. Shoot them down, scourge them with sabre and brand, till they cower, and beg for their lives, and you command, the Indians regard; and may get along with him. Extinction! that is the word: it should be the Shibboleth of all Indian hunters."

How indisputably has experience taught us the truth of the above. We were strongly reminded of the absolute necessity of the adoption of the course which we endorse by an incident which occurred yesterday.

The quiet order of the camp was interrupted by the furious riding through it of an Indian on a pony—both barebacked, horse and rider, who halted in front of District Headquarters and asked for Col. George. The Colonel seeing the Indian in a state of intoxication (for he was indeed very drunk,) ordered him to leave camp immediately, or he would take care of him.

The Indian mounted his horse and "Upon the hint he spoke" saying, "No good" "By G-d," "me join Snake" and immediately rode off at full speed. Now somebody is to blame for selling (or giving) liquor to this Indian, and it is somebody's duty to find out where he procured it, without "speaking from the book," we opine, that in future a repetition of the offence will result in an investigation as to the cause of it and invoke a punishment on the offender that will lead to results which will prevent its future recurrence. We merely allude to this as an additional evidence, corroborative of the sentiment noticed above, that treaties, kindness, gifts etc., are not as effectual in protecting emigration from the barbarities of the Indians on the Plains, as the punishing of them sufficiently to make them fear you, and as we are confident it is the intention of the General who has the whole matter now in his hands. Let no one condemn him for any severity he may be compelled to exercise in ridding this country of the greatest barrier to its advancement in the scale of civilization. From all accounts we shall soon hear of his teaching them a lesson which will prove a "First Class Reader" to the "Primer" of Bear River.

JAMES STREET, the well known telegraph man, is expected on the next steamer at San Francisco, to commence the new overland telegraph line, on the 30th parallel of latitude, through Arizona and New Mexico.

Attempt to Assassinate.

G. S. L. Orr, August 18, 1885.
Editor Daily Union Valdele.—I beg leave to make the following statement with regard to an outrage perpetrated in Salt Lake City, on Thursday evening, 17th inst., between 8 and 9 o'clock.

For some days I had been confined to my room suffering from neuralgia. Mr. Lees called to spend an hour with me on the above named evening. While sitting up at the foot of my bed conversing with Mr. Lees, my head resting on my left hand and in line with the open door, Mr. Lees a little in advance and to the left, also opposite the door, two stones, one weighing about two pounds and the other about one, were hurled with great force through the open door, the former barely missing Mr. Lees' head and the latter mine, and smashing a door leading to the rear of my study. The stones were hurled with such violence and evident deadly intent as to warrant the conclusion that the outrage was the act of an athletic arm and assassin's heart.

NORMAN McLEOD.

I hereby certify that the above statement is correct.

S. S. LEES.

We have taken pains to examine the evidences of murderous intent on the part of the persons who did this dastardly deed and are satisfied that had either of the gentlemen, whose lives were sought, been hit, the blow must have proved instantly fatal, and that neither missile could have missed its mark by more than a finger's breadth. These gentlemen are both exemplary citizens and with out offense to any upright man—why then are their lives thus attempted to be taken under cover of darkness? The answer is easy. Mr. Lees is an apostate Mormon—is possessed of many secrets of the Church it were desirable should be kept secret—what business has he to be found in confidential consultation with a minister of what the Saints (?) are pleased to call "a new religion?" He has "broken his covenants" and the oaths of the Endowment House permit, nay bind, all others who remain faithful to slay him for his apostasy. Many who know little of human depravity perchance may doubt the truth of this, but it is nevertheless true, as we will undertake to prove at any time beyond the possibility of cavil. Poor fools! what do they think to accomplish by killing off one or more of their opponents, standing on the vantage ground of truth, or of others who have released themselves, in defiance of the assassin's stroke, from the thrall that enslaved their very souls? Providentially they were this time foiled but had they not been, it would have been worse for them. The terrier of the Telegraph affects to see something funny in the affair, and wags his tail greatly but he and all his kind will find that it is not the same offense for a Mormon to kill a Gentile that it is for a cow to trespass on the garden of a neighbor, and the offenses will not be tried in the same court. We don't think assassination is the wisest policy for the Saints to pursue just now, for we tell them that every drop of innocent blood they shed will cry from the ground for speedy vengeance and not in vain. Men have been killed on their own thresholds ere now in Salt Lake City for similar offenses, but the day of impunity is passed forever—and we tell them this in all seriousness. They will find that midnight murder is no laughing matter, by and by, much as the Prophet affects to sneer the law to scorn.

TIME FOR MATRIMONY.—Among the ancient Germans, than whom a finer race never existed, it was death for any woman to marry before she was twenty years old. In this country, very few women are fit, either physically or mentally, to become mothers before they reach the age of twenty. The unsound condition and constitution of the parent is usually transmitted, with increased intensity, to the offspring. By the laws of Lycurgus, the most special attention was paid to the physical education of women; and no delicate or sickly women were, on any account, allowed to marry. Dr. Johnson, in his work on Economy of Health, says that matrimony should not be contracted before the first year of the fourth septennial on the part of the lady, nor before the last year of the same in the case of the gentleman; in other words, the female should be at least twenty-one years of age, and the male twenty-eight years. The doctor says, that there should be a difference of seven years between the sexes, at whatever period of life the connection is contracted. There is a difference of seven years, not in the actual duration of life in the two sexes, but in the stamina of the constitution, the symmetry of the form, and the lineaments of the face. In respect to early marriage, so far as it concerns the softer sex, for every year at which marriage is entered upon before the age of twenty-one, there will be, on an average, three years of premature decay, more or less apparent, of the corporeal fabric.

A COUSIN of Jeff. Davis is in New York preparing for the trial of the arch rebel. Charles O'Connor is to have the lead in the defense, upon which it is said he enters with great gusto, intending to make it the leading forensic effort of his life. A pre-arranged correspondent says: "Quite a number of the prominent members of the bar are engaged on 'points' which are to enter into the defense, two of which are these: First, that Davis owed allegiance to his State; her laws, her processes and commands must be obeyed; and if a collision exists between the State and General Government individuals cannot be punished—it must be settled by the authorities. Second, that the Federal Government, by proclamation, by laws, by exchange of prisoners, etc., have recognized, over and over again, the rebels as belligerents, which entitles all the rebel Government to the rights of belligerents."

The Daily Union-Writer

Local and Miscellaneous

Mr. and Mrs. Seiden M. Irwin, of dramatic popularity, are reported to be en route here from Boise and Idaho.

Some fellow thinks that houses ought to be exceedingly affectionate in this city—since rents are about as dear as they can be!

Governor Goodwin, of Arizona, intends to resign his Governorship and become a candidate for Congress. The heat of the desert is said to be terrible.

PRENTICE of the Louisville Journal says, "Never buy goods of those who don't advertise. They sell so little that they have to sell dear." That's a fact.

Mr. MEERS, dealer in jewelry, &c., has removed to his new, new quarters, south of the New York store, and is opening out with a sweet assortment of San Francisco styles.

EASTERN capitalists are looking towards Colorado, to see if things are favorable, preparatory to building furnaces, rolling mills, machine shops, and going into a general iron business.

It is currently reported, says the Folio Telegraph, that the Messrs. Robinsons have sold out their entire interests in the Sacramento Valley Railroad, to George F. Bragg and Louis McLane.

At Washoe, last week, a German and his new bride were kept awake by a barbarous serenade until he gave the musicians fifty dollars, which they propose to donate to the school fund.

"SHORT HAIRS," "Long hairs," and "Primaries," are terms greatly used in the political parlance of California papers, at the present. A precious system of "skulduggery" seems to rage there now.

W. I. O. G. T.—On account of many members of Camp Douglas Lodge, I. O. G. T. being desirous to attend the Theater on Tuesday evening next, the regular meeting will be held this (Monday) night.

THOMAS HARDY, who gave $5,000 to the Sanitary Fund last year, is the Union nominee for Senator in Calaveras county. So says the Sacramento Bee. How unique and shrewd that style of stating it—for electioneering effect.

EVERYBODY is anxious to have a daily or tri-weekly mail from Denver and the East, once more. Gold, Jeff Davis and a dozen other items are interesting to be heard from, while the lightning line is down. The last date from the east was July 28th.

A FELLOW walked the main streets of Montana's capital, the other day, attracting much attention because he wore his hair in a net—old fashion. It was his own, too, which is more than many of the ladies nowadays can boast of their baggy affidavits cycled "waterfalls."

Six programme for to-morrow, Tuesday, evening, at the Salt Lake Theater. Sheridan Knowles' Play of Louise is a sterling favorite in both hemispheres, and by Mrs. Hayne, Waldron and the Potter Troupe, will prove a perfect treat.

We would like to see Julia Dean and others of the Potter Troupe play here, in town and Camp, this fall and winter. No better field is there for first rate acting, especially as an immigration of military and miners is sure to come, to make the project a big paying success.

Speaking of politics on the Pacific, the S. F. Mining Press plainly talks as follows:

The fifty pool of politics in this State, seems to be stirred up from its very depths. The manner in which the present State canvass is being carried on, is disgusting to every manly instinct.

QUICK WORK.—In Washoe City, a few days since, a woman was divorced from her husband in the morning and married a widower editor the same night. The affair was evidently cut and dried, and the parties didn't need much schooling to enable the performance to go off smoothly.

No accustomed to exciting war-news, from day to day, the year past, it makes most people unsatisfied nowadays to read newspapers, especially daily ones out west here, where nothing is transpiring of a character sensational, and where nothing is coming in by stage or slow coach.

It was awful hot here, Saturday, before thunder crashes split a little from the overhanging clouds, and cooled off scorched creation. The main streets of town were thronged with teams and country shoppers, in the forenoon. Still there wasn't so much a doing. As for items, too hot weather and Julia Dean were the two chief subjects talked about in market or on change.

By notice elsewhere, it will be seen that the junior member of the firm of Heller & Snyder has taken to himself a fair life partner. It is doubtless the most desirable consequence to be had for the season—a friend that's worth the having. She granted the privilege and Snyder changed the name.

THE STATE SEAL OF VIRGINIA.—The State seal of Virginia has been materially altered by the new State Government. The device is the same, but the motto, "Eic Semper Tyrannus," has been expunged, and the words "Liberty and Union" now appear above the Goddess of Liberty, trampling upon the prostrate form of Tyranny.

THE telegraph gap, beyond South Pass, was fixed for through communication the other day, but before night a lot of Indians instantaneously raided down and destroyed the line between two stations, at each of which were soldiers. It seems there needs to be a company on every mile of the road to oppose these omnipresent outlaws. They spring up everywhere least looked for, no matter how efficient is the force at each line station.

DRAMATIC.—Salt Lake City has become a great place for patronizing the drama. The peculiarity of the place and of its institutions prompts this. There's no bar, no billiard hall, no club room, no music garden, and no nothing that attracts the patronage of amusement lovers except the theater; and therefore it is literally crowded three or four times in the week. Dancing used to be a big thing with fun loving saints and saintesses, some years ago. But since Brigham built this splendid theater there seems to have been a "revelation," that dancing might give way to drama, and thus put money in the President's long purse instead of in that of string bands and soiree managers. A few years ago, they used to "open the ball" before sunset, closing the doors and windows and lighting lamps to dance by. This they kept up until the wee sma' hours next morning. Now, the theater is their "strong suit."

The spacious theatre was thronged last Saturday and Friday evenings, with fashionably fair audiences, at least fifteen hundred on each occasion. The sensational play of Leah, or the forsaken Jewess, was received with unbounded admiration, and the acting of Mrs. Hayne as the heroine, with unparalleled applause. As "Blanca" in Fazio, the feeling and effect was equally intense, in appreciation of the artistic acting of Mrs. H. and Mr. Waldron.

Miss Belle Douglas and Mrs. Leslie acquit themselves very respectfully in their respective roles, and show "the case That marks security to please."

Some of the gentlemen actors of Mr. Potter's troupe are trumps in certain parts, of comedy, though some of 'em are only tolerably good, compared for instance to the capital and versatile stock troupe that have amused audiences here for seasons, under the management of Mr. Caine. To be considerate, just and generous, the fact is patent that hereafter our own stock company, inspired by the genius of Mrs. Hayne and others, in their efforts to adorn and elevate the art dramatic, will so be benefited by this engagement as to hereafter ride on cresting waves to shores of culture and success.

On the road, the lonely road,
Under the cold, white moon,
Where the old, old trees he stood,
Whispered and shifted his weary load—
Whispered a lonely tune.

There was a step behind his own,
A figure that stooped and bowed;
A long, white knife, that gleamed and shone,
Like a splinter of daylight downward thrown—
And the moon went behind a cloud.

But the vision came out so bold and rood,
That the man's back went cold and shod;
The shadowy figure came and stood,
And the man's back went cold and shod.

Then the man's back went cold and shod,
And the man's back went cold and shod,
And the man's back went cold and shod,
And the man's back went cold and shod.

The Baptist Chronicle says at an examination of girls for the rite of confirmation in the Episcopal Church, in answer to the question: "What is the outward and visible sign and form of baptism?" The reply of a bright little theologian was: "The baby, sir."

A lady in Claremont, New Hampshire, not long since became the mother of a fine daughter. A few days after a Copperhead neighbor happening in, said to the mother:

"Well, I suppose you'll call it Abe Lincoln?"

"No," she replied. "I'm sorry I can't. Like your friend Jeff, it will wear petticoats!"

Copperhead yamosed.

A certain official in a certain New England city, the location of which we shall not in any way indicate, recently determined to give a little party. He was discussing with his wife the details of the supper. "I think we must have some sardines," "Sardines," said his faithful and excellent; "yes, but I never quite understood what sardines were." "Why, you know," replied the husband, "you've seen 'em. A sardine is a slice of beef with a piece of bread on each side of it!"

A "Hoss Car" Adventure.—Artemus Ward had an adventure in Boston which resulted as follows: I returned in the hoss car part of the way. A pooty girl in spectacles sat near me, and was telling a young man how much he reminded her of a young man she used to know in Warham. Pooty soon the young man got out, and, smiling in a serious manner, I said to the girl in spectacles: "Don't remind you somebody you used to know?"

"Yes," she said, "you remind me of one man; he was sent to the penitentiary for stealing a barrel of mackerel; but he died there, so I concluded you ain't him."

I didn't pursue the conversation.

United States 7.30 LOAN.

Third Series. $230,000,000.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned, the General Subscriptions Agent for the sale of United States securities, offers to the public the third series of Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest per annum, known as the 7.30 LOAN.

These notes are loaned under date of July 15, 1895, and are payable three years from that date in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

Gold Bearing Bonds.

The Bonds are now worth a handsome premium, and are exempt, as are all the Government Bonds, from County and Municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. per annum to their value, according to the rate levied upon other property. The interest is payable semi-annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or broker.

The interest at 7.30 per cent., amounts to

One cent per day on a $50 note.
Two cents per day on a $100 note.
Ten cents " " " $500 " "
Twenty cents " " " $1,000 " "
One Dollar " " " $5,000 " "

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions. The notes of this Third Series are precisely similar in form and privileges to the Seven Thirties already sold, except that the Government reserves to itself the option of paying interest in gold coin at 6 per cent., instead of 7 3/10 in currency. Subscribers will deduct the interest in currency on July 15th, at the time when the subscription is made.

The delivery of the notes of this third series of the seven thirties will commence on the first of June, and will be made promptly and continuously after that date.

The slight change made in the conditions of this THIRD SERIES affects only the matter of interest. The payment in gold, if made, will be equivalent to the currency interest of the higher rate.

The return to specie payments, in the event of which only will the option to pay interest in gold be availed of, would so reduce and equilibrate prices that purchases made with six per cent. in gold would be fully equal to those made with seven and three-tenths per cent. in currency. This is

The only Loan in the MARKET.

Now offered by the Government, and its superior advantages make it the Great popular Loan of the People.

Less than $230,000,000 of the Loan authorized by Congress are now on the market. This amount, at the rate at which it is being absorbed, will all be subscribed for within sixty days, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of country may be offered facilities for taking the Loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Banks throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which the receipt is given.
